

Virtual Libraries

The Virtual Libraries section contains several collections and exhibits of school textbooks, historical documents and digitalized classic works on education.

The libraries were put together with material used in different research projects carried out with the participation of the MANES Project.

---

The thematic exhibits deal with topics that have been used as the subject of Doctoral Theses and research projects linked to MANES. Some of these exhibits were originally shown in the UNED's Central Library.